THE FOLLOWING REQUIREMENTS APPLY TO STUDENTS WHO COMPLETED OR WILL COMPLETE THE GED TESTS PRIOR TO JANUARY 1, 2014.

A NEW GED PROCESS TOOK EFFECT JANUARY 1, 2014. HOWEVER, NORMS FOR THIS NEW PROCESS WILL NOT BE IN PLACE UNTIL TWO YEARS AFTER ITS START DATE. STUDENTS WHO COMPLETE THE GED TESTS UNDER THE NEW PROCESS WILL THEREFORE BE REVIEWED ON A CASE-BY-CASE BASIS UNTIL JANUARY 1, 2016 AT WHICH POINT UDM WILL REVISE ITS REQUIREMENTS BASED UPON THE NORMS WHICH EMERGE FROM THE NEW GED TESTING PROCESS.

General Requirements
Students with a GED diploma are eligible for regular admission to the University. For general admission, students are required to have at least 510 on each of the five GED tests and an average standard score of 550 or better across all five GED tests. Some programs may also require approval from the applicable college or school.

Students who fall below the general requirements may be considered for conditional admission through University College (UC). Students under consideration for conditional admission may be asked to complete additional requirements and/or submit additional materials (e.g., an interview, a writing sample, and/or placement exams).

Additional Requirements for Traditional First-Year Students
(under the age of 23 without post high school college credit):

• ACT scores of at least 18 (or SAT 860 for Math and Reading portions) for general admission. Some programs may require higher scores. Admissions Office will consult with applicable college or school. Students with ACT/SAT scores below 18 may be considered for conditional admission through UC.

Additional Requirements for Transfer Students

• 12+ transferrable credits taken within the past seven years with at least a 2.0 GPA for general admission. Some programs may require a higher GPA. Admissions Office will consult with applicable college or school. Students with a GPA below 2.0 may be considered for conditional admission through UC.

Additional Requirements for Non-Traditional First-Year Students
(23 and older & no previous post high school college credit):

• ACT scores of at least 18 (or SAT 860 for Math and Reading portions) for general admission. Some programs may require higher scores. Admissions Office will consult with applicable college or school. Students who fall below 18 may be considered for conditional admission through UC.

• Alternatively, if a student chooses not to take the ACT or SAT, s/he may request an interview in order to be considered for conditional admission through University College. Students under consideration for conditional admission may be asked to complete additional requirements and/or submit additional materials (e.g., an interview, a writing sample, and/or placement exams).

• Students in this category may also choose to enroll in classes at an institution that offers open-admission in order to pursue 12+transferable credits and then apply or reapply as a Transfer Student see above).
