Introduction

Given the importance of effective developmental advising for the success and retention of UDM students, mid-term grades are critical in assessing student progress. A mid-term grade represents an assessment of all work a student has completed up to the midpoint of a semester and is very useful for both student and advisor as they plan for a student’s successful completion of a semester and degree program.

Policy

In keeping with the contractual obligations of UDM instructional faculty*, it is a professional obligation of faculty to submit mid-term grades for all undergraduate students.

Approved

   Undergraduate Coordinators Committee  9/26/2012
   Undergraduate Standards Committee Revised  2/1/2013
   Undergraduate Standards Committee  2/15/2013
   MFA  2/21/2013
   ALT  3/21/2013

*Faculty professional contractual obligations concerning advising are found in the UDMPU May 16, 2008 – May 15, 2013 Agreement 6.2(a) and 6.2(a)(iv).